National Forest Week July 10 - 16, 2023 / "Forest Mode"

Celebrate National Forest Week within the 1.2-million-acre Black Hills National Forest. Find your "forest mode" by exploring outdoor opportunities.

NATIONAL Forest
WEEK™

Explore the Osprey TrailTuesday, July 11 / 10 a.m.

Take part in a two-hour, guided hike along the 2.2-mile Osprey Trail near Pactola Reservoir. Learn about ponderosa pines and the evolution of a forest ecosystem. For the amateur arborist, hikers will also learn methods to estimate a tree's age, height, health, reproduction, and defense against threats. This trek is perfect for families with young children. Meet at the Osprey Trailhead parking lot near Loop B of Pactola Campground. NOTE: For more youth engagement, visit Kids in Parks online for more trail adventures and prizes.

Junior Forest Ranger Program / Animal Tracks (Pactola Visitor Center)Thursday, July 13 / 1 - 2 p.m.

Bring the kids to the Pactola Visitor Center for an afternoon of making plaster animal tracks. Yep ... your little Junior Forest Rangers will get kind of dirty, but they will have fun learning about wildlife in the Black Hills National Forest. Take part in a scavenger hunt inside the visitor center, view the exhibits and displays, and just enjoy the afternoon overlooking the Pactola Reservoir. Earn a badge too!

Outdoor Photography Workshop (Pactola Visitor Center)Saturday, July 15 / 1 - 5 p.m.

Meet at the Pactola Visitor Center for an afternoon of photography skills / training ... then take to the field to capture some images. Marty DeWitt, professional photographer, will share the basics of exposure, lighting, composition, and introduce participants to different types of equipment used for nature photography. An evening session related to night sky images is available in the Pactola Campground at 8:00 p.m. Registration is required by Thursday, July 13 by calling (605) 673-9200.

Junior Forest Ranger Program / Animal Outhouses (Pactola Visitor Center)Saturday, July 15 / 1 - 2 p.m.

Dissecting owl pellets is a fun and interesting way to learn about food chains, habitats, and how scientists collect and use data. Bring your Junior Forest Rangers to the visitor center for a fun story and then explore an owl pellet like a wildlife biologist.

Campfire Sing-Alongs - Songbird of the Black Hills (Reuter Campground)Saturday, July 15 / 7:30 p.m.

Songbird of the Black Hills (Sally Svenson) is sharing an evening of campfire music featuring several Black Hills stories behind her original songs ... with sing-along tunes included. If you are looking for a weekend camping experience in the Bearlodge Mountains, head to Reuter Campground for a nostalgic night around the fire pit.

National Forest Week™ Photo Contest

The National Forest Foundation is hosting a photography contest for the general public, and images can be submitted through National Forest Week Photo Contest, www.nationalforests.org. Three categories are available: Landscape, Recreation, and Youth Photographer. NOTE: The contest is available from Monday, July 10, 2023 to midnight (MT) on July 16, 2023.

Songbird of the Black Hills

Labor Day Weekend Sing-Along Event

Saturday, September 2 / 7:00 p.m.
Sheridan Lake Campground

When nature and music join forces, inspiration flows. These are the elements that have motivated the Songbird of the Black Hills (Sally Svenson) to write her songs. Through her music, she delights in sharing her love of this diverse region with others.

Sally has spent over four decades exploring and experiencing the Hills with all its varied habitats and vistas. She served as the Custer State Park (CSP) naturalist for eighteen years. Sally spent an additional sixteen summers in CSP as an entertainer at the Blue Bell Chuckwagon. The inspiration for new songs continues to flow.

You are invited to join the Songbird of the Black Hills for a late-season evening of campfire music featuring the Black Hills stories behind her original songs (sing-along tunes included).

Under permit from the Black Hills National Forest, Forest Recreation Management (FRM) operates most of the campgrounds and developed recreation sites on the Forest during the summer months. In an effort to engage its late-season campers, vacationers, and local outdoor enthusiasts, FRM is sponsoring the Labor Day Weekend musical program at Sheridan Lake Campground.

Join Black Hills Parks & Forests Association (BHPFA) for a virtual fundraiser, the South Dakota Centennial Trail Hike Challenge. Between now and Labor Day, September 4, 2023, BHPFA is encouraging public land supporters from around the country to virtually travel the length of the South Dakota Centennial Trail from Wind Cave National Park to Bear Butte State Park. Participants can earn miles by self-supported, non-motorized activities like running, hiking, walking, bike-riding, working out, and swimming from anywhere they choose. After completing an activity, participants can upload their mileage to the challenge's website, where their progress is tracked along an interactive map of the Centennial Trail. There's still plenty of time to register and reach 128 miles before Labor Day.

Registration is required to take a part in this virtual event and can be done online. The cost is $25 for BHPFA members and $55 for non-members and includes an event sticker & patch. Fuel the Growth Economic Development Course Returns to BHSU-RC

RAPID CITY, S.D. – The economic development course “Fuel the Growth – 2023: Advancing Economic Development in Communities” is back at Black Hills State University-Rapid City for its third year.

Economic development professionals, board members, community leaders, businesspersons, and elected officials are invited to register for the Fuel the Growth - 2023 course that will be held Sept. 12-14, 2023. Fuel the Growth - 2023 is hosted by Black Hills State University (BHSU) and the Rushmore Region Economic Development Alliance. Sponsors include the South Dakota Governor's Office of Economic Development (SD GOED), Black Hills Energy, West River Foundation, Elevate Rapid City, and Spearfish Economic Development Corporation (SEDC).

“Economic development is a multidisciplinary field that requires a broad range of skills, including project management, community engagement, data analysis, and marketing,” noted Kory Menken, executive director of Spearfish Economic Development Corporation. “Fuel the Growth provides the knowledge and tools needed to make informed, data-driven decisions that are grounded in best practices. Attending Fuel the Growth is not only an investment in individual professional development, but the economic growth of our communities and region.”

“The Fuel the Growth” course will afford Economic Development professionals the opportunity to develop skills and deepen their knowledge of economic development while developing valuable connections not only throughout South Dakota, but also within the region,” added Andrew Buks, instructor of management at BHSU.

The two-and-a-half day training event will be led by economic development experts and utilize presentations, panel discussions, and case studies to address 10 key topics in economic development including business retention and expansion, entrepreneurship, community and real estate development, strategic planning, organizational management, and ethics. In addition to learning from local and regional experts, participants will have an opportunity to engage with and learn from colleagues and other attendees through networking opportunities.

“Being brand new to economic development, the Fuel the Growth course was an excellent program that equipped me with the skills and knowledge I needed to contribute to the growth and development of my community,” said Kallie Ruland, business retention and expansion manager at Elevate Rapid City. “This course offers high-quality instructors with real world experience and knowledge, comprehensive course materials, and practical learning opportunities. Participants can expect to gain a deeper understanding of economic development strategies and how to apply them to their community or organization.”
